-The Republicans of this county are holding meetings along the line of the railroad and in the south of the county almost every night. Things are not so rosy hued as they looked some time ago for their candidates for assembly and sheriff and they are making desperate efforts to bring the voters into line. - Ex-Governor Andrew G. Curtin's will has been entered for probate. It is dated September 4, 1894, is written on one side of a sheet of legal cap, and bequeaths everything to his beloved wife, her heirs and assigns forever. In addition, he had considerable real estate and other valuable securities.

The sonvenir edition of the Johnstown Democrat is on our table, and as a specimen of typographic art and enterprise in newspaperdom, is a credit to the establishment from which it was issued and to eading citizens, business houses and man ufacturing establishments are not excelled in any work of the same kind that has me to our sanctum from the large cities and the people of Johnstown should be proud of the Democrat.

-John Leighty died at his home in Ebusburg at 2 o'clock on Monday afternoor from typhoid fever, aged about 27 years The deceased was a popular young man strong and athletic, and in the pride of manhood when on Thursday of last week he was stricken with that dread disease shing the work which caused his death in less than a week. He was a son of the late William uple of weeks | Leighty and is survived by his mother and second brothers and sisters. His funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon, his remains being interred in Lloyd's cemetery.

-During several weeks past unknown memies of John Hoover, a wealthy resident of Allegheny township, Blair county, have been killing his live stock and stealing his turkeys, goese, etc., at a rate that breatens to impoverish him. Valuable eartie and numbers of fine sheep have been daughtered, night after night, and the itmust vigilance of the local authorities have failed to connect anybody with the depredations. The other night a heavy charge of shot was fired at him, but aside from cutting his clothing, the shot did him

Her death was caused by consumption. In company with her father and mother she vas returning from Colorado Springs, whore she had been solourning for some ime, hoping that the climate would bene fit her failing health. The temains were taken through to Philadelphia on the train on which she died. -A team that was about being hitched up at the livery stable of O'Hara, Luther & Davis on Thursday morning started or a run with the swingletrees and double tree attached. They ran on to the pave ment in front of the Mountain House pool room and then turned, when each horse hade trees on the curb, separated the team and one horse was thrown and then it ran against the iron fence, breaking of ne post and breaking down a panel of the nee. One of the horses was severely hurt while the other escaped injury. Things looked brisk down at the mouth of Cush Creek on Monday, when over 100 Friend even. men on a work train pulled in at Dowler speakers will and at once proceeded to build a bridge charstown and over Cush Creek, lay ties and rails and build things up in general. Early last July Lane deserted his wife and three children and went to Greensburg. Some two weeks later Annie took her departure. It was generally believed the pair had eloped, but efforts to locate them proved failures until yesterday, when Constable Harris learned that the parties were living together as man and wife at

The officer, armed with the legal papers, departed yesterday morning, and after much trouble located Lane and Annie in the outskirts of Greensburg. Lane, since living Johnstown, has been known as Charles Lane, alias Charles Ross, alias Charles Alexander. It was the assumed names under which he had been sailing which aided him in cluding the law so long. Immediately after their arrival last night on the Fast Line both were escorted to the office of Alderman Harris, where the charges against each were read. They waived a hearing and both stand committed to answer to the grand jury at the De cember term of court. -Tuesday's Johnstown Democrat.

Along with the above we glean the folowing from the Greensburg Argus: 'There are other circumstances connected with the affair which may terminate more seriously far Lane and his paramour. A child was born to the woman about five weeks ago, which died very suddenly and was buried in the Catholic cemetery on Sunday. Lane visited the Argus office resterday morning and pleadingly requested that a notice of his child's death should not be published, for reasons which he gave. Suspicion was at once proused, and the matter was being investigated when he was arrested. It is suspected, and on good grounds, too, that the child was put out of the way. When Lane was accused of the crime he said he could account for the child's death when the proper time came. The body will be exhumed and a thorough investigation made." Annie Hoover, mentioned in the above article, is an Ebensburg girl and resided in this place until about a year ago.

Hung Himself. On Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. John Morgan, residing in Cambria township, about three miles southeast of Ebensburg. went to the barn, accompanied by another woman, for the purpose of filling a bedtick with straw, they were startled to see the lifeless body of a man hanging suspended from a beam, with a rope around his neck. Word was sent to Ebensburg and several people went out to see if they could identify the man, as he was a stranger in the neighborhood. He was dentified as an insane man, a Slav by birth, who had been an inmate of the almshouse for a year or more, and who was previous to his admission to the almshouse a resident of Hastings. Several weeks ago he escaped from the almshouse and since that time he had been tramping the country, and notwithstanding the authorities were searching for him, be ucceeded in cluding them. He was about to years of age, and was known at the ilmshouse as the "dummy," as he never talked to anyone and would stand or sit get the two papers a week for the same old in one position for hours at a time, We

Jacob Burket, an Arab peddler of Johns own, while walking down the railroad near Conemaugh Furnace was attacked by two men, one white and the other colored who robbed him of his pocketbook contain ing twenty-five dollars and a watch val-ned at twenty-eight dollars. After rob-bing him Burket started to follow the highwaymen when they fired two stots at im both of which took effect, one in the right hip and the other in the calf of the Some railread laborers hearing the shooting went to Burket's assistance, when the robbers fied. He was taken to the Johnstown hospital where his wounds although sore are not considered dangerous.
